

SBWIB Winter newsletter

BEACH CITIES ONE-STOP

The friendly staff at the Beach Cities One-Stop Center in Redondo Beach, provides services to more than 300 individuals and businesses each month from the communities of Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach, Manhattan Beach, Palos Verdes and Rancho Palos Verdes.

The staff includes: Program Manager Jacqueline Nason-Devlin; Employment Coordinators Kimberly Slany, Marty Thomas, Mary Sercu, and Theano Kavoulakis; Administrative Coordinators Maria Frias and Georgean Griffis; Senior Clerk Norma Nino, and Customer Support Staffer Molly Gallinger.

The Beach Cities One-Stop Center is administered by the South Bay Workforce Investment Board, and provides employment and training services for clients as well as employment related services to businesses at no cost. Business services include; assistance in finding new employees, posting job listing, recruitment and interviewing, outplacement services in the event of a lay off. Client services include employment preparation workshops, access to our center which provides computers for job search preparation, job leads and friendly staff to assist with questions. Additional services are available for clients who meet eligibility requirements under the Workforce Investment Act (WIA).