

INGLEWOOD BUSINESSES BENEFIT FROM ONE-STOP RECRUITMENT SERVICES

Thirteen of the brand new retail stores and restaurants located in the Village at Century shopping center were able to fill their recruitment needs thanks to the efforts of the staff at the Inglewood One-Stop Business & Career Center.

Beginning last summer, the Inglewood One-Stop staff started the recruitment and screening of candidates to fill the nearly 800 positions that were created when the Alexander Haagen Company completed construction of the 700,000 square-foot Village at Century regional shopping center. The staff processed more than 3,600 people and placed just over 750 of them into a variety of positions with average starting salaries ranging from $8.50 to $15 an hour.

Among the businesses receiving the Inglewood One-Stop Center services were Red Lobster, Chili's, Marshalls, Juice It Up, Larger Sizes, Cold Stone Creamery, Michael's Arts & Crafts, Daniels Jewelers, Ross Dress for Less, Childrens Place, Royal Buffet, Heidi's Korean BBQ and Bed, Bath & Beyond.

The One-Stop staff members that processed the 3,600 recruits included: Dan Hansen, Senior Employment Development Specialist; Lazaro Inguanzo, Employment Development Specialist, and Yvonne D'Ambra, Employment Development Assistant.
