South Bay Workforce Investment Board Presents
Highly Successful Hiring Event That Exposed
Hundreds of Job Seekers to Careers in the Hospitality Industry

HAWTHORNE – The South Bay Workforce Investment Board (SBWIB) staged a highly successful Hiring Event in partnership with Contemporary Services Corporation (CSC) June 3rd, that attracted more than 370 job seekers to the event that was held at the Watts Labor Community Action Committee Resource Center in Los Angeles.

Of the 291 candidates that received on-site conditional job offers and immediate job offers, 146 applicants completed the subsequent orientation and onboarded with CSC reported, Elisabeth Gutierrez, SBWIB GAIN Program Supervisor.

SBWIB Executive Director Jan Vogel reflected on the success the WIB has had in exposing job seekers to the many exciting opportunities that are available in the hospitality industry. "CSC supports very high – profile events like concerts, major professional and collegiate athletic events festivals, trade shows and conventions," he said. He also praised the partnership that the SBWIB has received with the DPSS Region VI job development staff that results in highly organized and supportive environment that benefits candidates and employers alike.

Among the many positions the newly hired CSC employees could fill are Event Security, Access Control, Bike Patrol, Guest Services and Parking Attendants.

SBWIB is a regional workforce development organization that partners with businesses, educational institutions and community organizations to help individuals find employment, develop marketable skills and achieve sustainable careers. SBWIB's no cost services are provided through its four AJCC One-Stop Business and Career Centers that service 11 South Bay cities. For further information visit www.sbwib.org
