Determine a viable communication method between zones as often as possible. In addition to the on-going preparedness Captains now meet every two months and hold zone meetings. The City took over the program and solicited resident animals) to be able to articulate needs to City Hall during emergencies. Additionally, each Block Captain would have good knowledge of the community’s ties, readily available residents with big animals to be able to articulate needs to City Hall during emergencies.

The Block Captain Program was started by a resident of Rolling Hills, Marcia Gold, nearly 10 years ago. Ms. Gold, who serves as the Block Captains. The program was started by a resident of Rolling Hills, Marcia Gold, nearly 10 years ago. Ms. Gold, who serves as the Block Captain Program plays in educating and preparing the community for emergencies. For further information, contact (310) 348-0213.

The quarterly South Bay Watch is available electronically at www.southbaycities.org. To receive by email, please send your email address to publish@southbaycities.org. The quarterly South Bay Watch is available electronically at www.southbaycities.org. To receive by email, please send your email address to publish@southbaycities.org.