

The Schools

SCHOOLS HOME ACADEMICS BRIEFS COMMUNITY SERVICE EVENTS
FOCUS ON LEARNING SCHOOL NEWS SPORTS THE ARTS

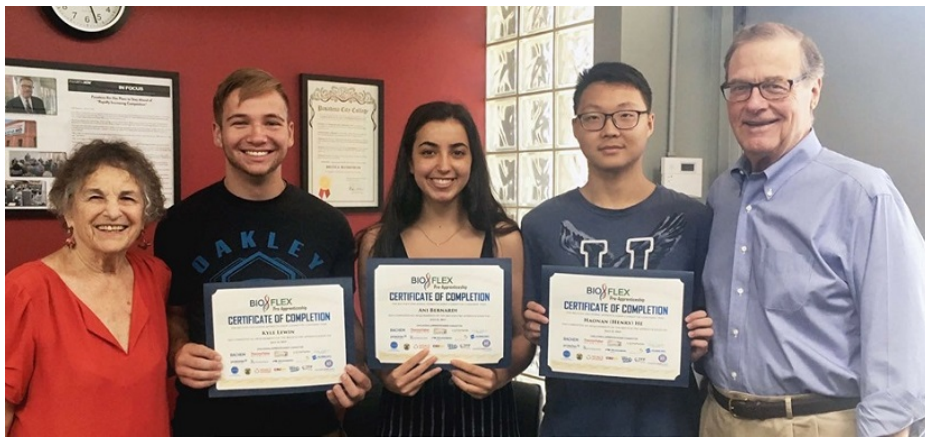

St. Francis High School Participates in South Bay Workforce Investment Board Bio-Flex Apprenticeship Initiative for the Bioscience Industry

Article and Photo courtesy of ST. FRANCIS HIGH SCHOOL

Published : Wednesday, July 24, 2019 | 7:21 PM

Like 0 Tweet Share 51K+ Share 1

St. Francis High School congratulates junior Kyle Lewin '21 (2nd from the left) on completing his Bio-Flex internship at the Pasadena Bio Collaborative Lab as part of the first cohort intended to bring high paying biotech jobs to the Los Angeles area.

Pictured: Recent Bio-Flex Pre-Apprentices pose for photo after receiving their completion certificates. Pictured from left to right; Dr. Wendie Johnston, Lab Director, Pasadena Bio Collaborative incubator, Kyle Lewin, Ani Bernardi, Haonan (Henry) He and Robert C. Bishop, Ph.D., President, Pasadena Bio Collaborative incubator.

South Bay Workforce Investment Board Implements Bio-Flex Apprenticeship Initiative for the Bioscience Industry:

[https://docs.wixstatic.com/
.../b8codc_07d24c943ed24e6883d29a5...](https://docs.wixstatic.com/.../b8codc_07d24c943ed24e6883d29a5...)

St. Francis High School, 200 Foothill Blvd., La Cañada, (818) 790-0325 or visit www.sfhs.net.