SUCCESS STORIES

Remedios Barrera

Re-entering the workforce, recovery for self and family

Remedios Barrera, 29, is a single parent of two young children. Before entering the Enhanced - Transitional Subsidized Employment (E-TSE) program Remedios was homeless living in a shelter with her children.

"The E-TSE Program is truly an amazing experience. Through the program I was able to re-enter the workforce, using my previous experience and getting hands-on training in a job setting where I feel comfortable. It allows me

It allows me to re-learn how to perform in a work environment and how to handle stress, manage my time, and communicate well with others..."

Youth opportunities after graduation

Brian Rodriguez, a recent high school graduate, aspired to start college after graduating. Instead, he decided to focus on applying to multiple jobs, but had no work experience prior to enrolling in the Youth Program and encountered obstacles obtaining employment.

Brian enrolled in the Youth Program where he was assigned a case manager. His case manager informed him about the...
